

pendulum & crystal healing introductory workshop

description

This 2 day workshop is designed to provide an understanding of the

- universal way of all energy
- mapping of the human energy field
- healing power of crystals & pendulums
- ways to balance the human energy field using crystals & pendulums.

One of the great benefits of healing through pendulum dowsing & crystals is that it is as much a method of self-healing, as it is a client-therapist method of healing.

human energy field

The human energy field is the blueprint of human life. It is the intelligence behind our growth and the impetus of our evolution. It is living, breathing circuitry. It is symmetrical and highly ordered and there to support us in all we do. When it becomes disrupted, we lack this support and life can feel difficult, organs can dysfunction and structure deform. The more we understand the energy field, the more we know where to place our crystals and how to hold them. This is what this workshop is all about.

healing power of crystals & pendulums

Crystal healing works with the innate properties and consciousness of crystals to restore balance and symmetry to the natural flow of energy in and round the human body. Unlike plants and flowers, when plucked from their source, crystals remain living entities unto themselves. Crystals speak the language of creation. Their innate geometric perfection resonates with the energetic and sacred geometry which underpins and makes creation possible. Crystals are stabilized or crystallized expressions of the living intelligence of life itself. When the human energy field becomes unstable or disrupted, crystals can assist in restoring its natural order. They do this through the power of resonance. Crystals can help to trigger the self-healing process. It is literally mind blowing to feel the living presence of a crystal resonating in your consciousness.

Whereas crystals are stationary, pendulums move & their power is the power of spin. Within minutes & with clear direction, a pendulum can correct the spin of energy not only energy that is fragmented but energy that is in reverse! This is energy medicine at its best – simple, quick & direct.

ways to release trauma & balance energy covered in this workshop

- holding single and double terminated crystals to balance the body's polarity
- chakra layouts & grid formations to establish a healing environment
- crystal correspondences for chakra alignment & soul purpose
- pendulum dowsing to clear energy blocks
- absent healing & space clearing
- healing animals

This workshop will assist you to choose the right crystals for you and provide you with simple ways to cleanse and care for your crystals. A few myths will be debunked and the power of pure intention revealed. It will open doors and delight!

“Peace does not belong to any nation, any society, or any religion.
It belongs to people like you & me.
Where will peace manifest?
It will manifest in the cathedral of the heart”
